

PRIVACY POLICY

THEDESIGNSHOP

---

design is exciting

---

The Privacy of all of our customers & clients is of the utmost importance to how we run our business.

We will never disclose any information about any of our customers or clients, including client lists, business names, current projects and designs unless otherwise requested by our clients.

On occasion we may need to consult with trusted third party companies - if this is the case in regards to your project, you will be contacted prior to this action for authorisation.

We have a trusted relationship with third party manufactures, subcontractors, consultants and vendors, which share our commitment to our privacy policy.

In the case of sensitive design development a Confidentiality Statement can be arranged for all services offered.

Our commitment to privacy is to offer the highest level of confidentiality to all our clients.

Signed:

---

Management